

Welcome to Kyoto Culture Heart of Japan

京
都

Where Kyoto is

International Access

Kansai International Airport has direct flights to 71 cities worldwide

京都

Examples

Kansai International Airport Transfer

京都

Access to Kyoto from Kansai International Airport

Kansai International Airport Transfer

JR Haruka Express Train

75 minutes

2,980 JPY

Shuttle Taxi

95 minutes – direct to your door

3,500 JPY

Airport Limousine Bus

95 minutes

2,300 JPY

京
都

Domestic Access Map

Kansai International Airport (KIX)
JR Haruka Express Train	75 min	JPY 2,980
Shuttle Taxi	95 min	JPY 3,500
Limousine Bus	95 min	JPY 2,300
Osaka Itami Airport (ITM)
Shuttle Taxi	55 min	JPY 2,300
Limousine Bus	55 min	JPY 1,280
Tokyo Narita Airport (NRT)
NEX & Shinkansen	60 min 2 hrs 15 mins	JPY 2,940 JPY 13,220
Nagoya Centrair (NGO)
Meitetsu & Shinkansen	28 min & 36 min	JPY 850 JPY 5,640

京
都

Kyoto City Transport

“Thirty Minute City”

A comprehensive transport network brings all points in Kyoto within half an hour travelling distance

- Kyoto City Subway

Two lines

Numbered stations

- Kyoto City Bus

Special tourist routes

- Private-sector rail

Interlinked networks

- Taxi

京

都

Kyoto City Transport

Kyoto City Subway

North-South: 30 min

East-West: 30 min

京都

Summary

Costs: Kyoto is cheaper than Tokyo and other similar large cities.

Tipping is unnecessary in Japan!

Service is a priority in Japan: "The Customer is God."

Safety: Japan's crime rate is very low.

Subways are well-lit and easily navigable.

Most residents understand simple English if asked a question.

Cleanliness: Spotless trains and graffiti-less streets make for a pleasant stay in Kyoto.

京

都